

MUKHTAR STONES

- What did the track title make you expect?
  - I wasn't sure what I was expecting honestly.

- After hearing the track, what are your thoughts?
  - The song is very obscure and abstract. It kind of influenced what I was creating for the piece.

- What emotions did the track make you feel?
  - The track made me feel still while listening to it.

- How are your emotions connected to the track?
  - I don't feel any personal connection to the track, but the track is trancing.

- How do you feel tied/ disconnected with the track?
  - Because the track is more sonic, electronic, with no lyrics it doesn't pull me in but more or less takes me somewhere else.

- Did the track make you think a lot? Or not at all? Explain ( how/ why)
  - I felt no real thought but I saw the vision for the artwork that would be based from the track.

- What does the track make you think of?
  - It makes me think where or what mind and mental space the artist was while making the track.

- What are your motives behind the piece you've created?
  - Vibrant color, abstract and very psychedelic.

- Why did you make your piece in this specific way?
  - That's what I felt while listening to the track or more or less what I saw.

- Do you think the track mixed with your piece/ medium could inspire your future work? (New style/ focus)
  - It makes me want to be more loose with my work.

- What does your piece make you think of?
  - The track, futurism, abstraction, reality.

- Does your piece have to communicate with everyone? Or only to you?
  - I think it should communicate with the artist behind the track.

- What do you think my motives were behind the track?
  - I think you wanted to put people in a trance, but also have fun and move.
